

ERIC LOQUIN

Nationality: French

Education: Doctorate in Law; Agrégation des Facultés de droit (University of Burgundy in Dijon).

Languages: French, English

Present Position: Professor of International Private Law, Company Law, Contracts and Arbitration Law at the University of Burgundy in Dijon; Vice-President of the University of Burgundy; Director, CREDIMI.

Professional Career: Former Dean of the Law School at the University of Burgundy in Dijon; Former Visiting Professor, International Law Academy in The Hague.

Areas of Specialization: Arbitration; International Trade; Sports Law, Space law, Contract Law, Corporation Law; International private Law.

Arbitration Experience: Appointed arbitrator in 40 French domestic arbitrations, including 23 as Chair of the Arbitral Tribunal; Also appointed arbitrator in 17 international arbitrations, including 9 under ICC Rules; Counsel in 22 arbitrations (domestic and international); Party-appointed expert in 14 arbitrations.

Publications: 8 books devoted to Arbitration Law or to International Trade Law, plus an Arbitration Treatise (co-authored with Professor Thomas Clay, soon to be published by Dalloz); author of all chapters of the Jurisclasseur de procédure civile (Dalloz) devoted to Arbitration; more than 220 brief notices on Arbitration authored since 1991 in Revue trimestrielle de droit commercial et de droit économique; several brief notices on the arbitral awards of the Sports International Tribunal in Lausanne, published in Journal de droit international; 80 articles on Arbitration Law or International Trade Law, chiefly published in Revue de l'arbitrage and in Journal de droit international, including “Préférez l’arbitrage!” co-authored with Louis B. Buchman in Gazette du Palais (14-16 September 2008) and “Trois bonnes raisons” co-authored with Louis B. Buchman in MOCI (30 October and 27 November 2008). Several of his articles have been translated into Spanish and in Portuguese.

Professional Associations: Comité Français de l’Arbitrage (Board Member); Comité français de droit international privé; International Law Association; Société de Législation Comparée; Association de droit spatial; Association Henri Capitant; Association internationale de droit Economique; Association internationale de droit judiciaire.

Miscellaneous: Author of dozens of opinions on International Trade Law and on Conflict of Laws issues; Recipient of the French distinction of Commandeur, Palmes Académiques.