

Janet Walker, BA(Hons), MA (York); LLB (Osgoode); MA, DPhil (Oxon); Professor and former Associate Dean, Osgoode Hall Law School; of the Ontario Bar. Professor Walker teaches Conflict of Laws and International Commercial Arbitration at Osgoode, and has taught as a visitor at Monash, Haifa, Toronto, NYU, NUS, Oxford, and since 2001 at Tunis II. She is the author of Castel and Walker: Canadian Conflict of Laws, 6 ed, and Civil Litigation (with Lorne Sossin); and General Editor of The Civil Litigation Process: Cases and Materials, 7th ed, and Common Law, Civil Law and the Future of Categories (with Oscar Chase). Other publications can be found at <http://ssrn.com/author=1000667> Professor Walker is the common law advisor to the Federal Courts Rules Committee and she is active in the international arbitration community, serving as arbitrator. She was co-chair of ILA2006 (www.ila2006.org) and IAPL2009 (www.iapl2009.org) and she lead the Project on Teaching Procedure, a collaboration of common law proceduralists interested in the impact of the teaching of procedure as an academic subject.